

Deb's Place

Sharing Your Faith.

Good Communication:

- * connects with the audience.
- * frames concepts in the positive.
- * relates to the audience's world view.
- * understands the audience.

When sharing your faith:

- * find out what connects with your audience.
- * make it relevant and real life.
- * share your interests before your faith.
- * don't just talk, show your faith in action.
